TRIBUTE FROM ZIKU CHRISTIN, SISTER TO

Bakuyeya Beatrice Akosua

He said 'I was born with nothing and I will die with nothing'. The lord gave and now he has taken. May his name be praise. Job 1:21.

It seems to me that your death was just a dream that I would wake up and realised it was all a dream. My mind is still struggling to wrap around the fact that you are gone and will never return to the world again.

Akosua as I called you, you were not just a sister but also a soulmate. My sister lived a very simple life worthy of emulation, she never engages in any fruitless argument with anybody. Akosua it's very unfortunate we couldn't spend much time together before your demise.

Akosua!!! Akosua!!! Akosua!!!

Hede nyuie na dzudzor le hutifafa me. (Rest in perfect peace).

TRIBUTE BY CHILDREN OF THE LATE Bakuyeya Beatrice Akosua

Yes, death is inevitable but the loss of a love one, especially a mother can be very painful. Even at a very old age we all desire to continue to see our mother strong and living but the Lord knows what we don't know.

We gathered here today, not to mourn you but to celebrate your life and the great legacy of faith you left behind. You stood firm on the side of God and nurtured us into who we are today and we are grateful.

Daavi, (as we affectionately called you) we remember how you sold kenkey, fried fish, corn and cassava dough to support us. We cannot forget, the many good things you denied yourself of in order to make us who we are today. You are a gracious woman both in life and death. You were a mother to everyone who come around you because you have a heart full of kindness. we never saw you quarrel or fight with anybody throughout your life and this makes you unique.

Indeed, you are an example of a caring, loving, kind, discipline and honest mother. Daavi, your smile is like the warmth of the morning sun that embraces our hearts and we are already missing that smile. We will miss your delicious kenkey and fish and your palatable light-soup without tin-tomatoes. When we say old lady then you respond "yea" but today our old lady is silent when we called.

Today, we will no longer cry because we know that even a thousand litters of tear won't bring you back but our only joy is that you are with your maker smiling and wishing us well.

Till we meet again. Daavi Daavi,
Hede nyuie dzudzor le nutifafa me

TRIBUTE BY GRAND CHILDREN OF THE LATE Bakuyeya Beatrice Akosua

We will never forget how you took great care of us. You took in all your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and others with love. Words would fail us in expressing how grateful we are to you for the many times you've given us support even financially, life advice as well as ensuring peace and unity.

Daavi, you lived a fulfilled life here on earth and now you've gone ahead of us, called into the glory of our lord till we meet again.

We love you always but the Lord loves you more.

Rest in perfect peace. Amen

TRIBUTE BY INLAWS OF THE LATE Bakuyeya Beatrice Akosua

Daavi as we all called you; you are more of a mother than an in-law to us. Ever since we knew you, you always make us feel welcome and we know you were sincere. You took away our fears and treat us as your own in your very special way and made us part of the family. Only a heart as dear as yours would give so unselfishly and we are grateful. We will miss you our dearest mother in-law. Keep resting till we meet again.
